DEPOT MUSEUM

Fortuna's Depot Museum is located in Rohner Park. The depot was originally built in 1893 and located at the foot of 7th Street. As part of the nation's Bicentennial celebration, the city moved the depot to Rohner Park and converted it into Fortuna's Museum of local history. The Museum's grand opening was held on July 4, 1976. Exhibits feature railroads, logging, fishing, farming and ranching, local Native American culture, a general store, and the daily lives of those who for generations called Fortuna "home." Other highlights include the Rohner Room, dedicated to the Swiss immigrant family who donated much of the land that became Rohner Park, and Northwestern Pacific Caboose #11, built in 1909 and donated to the museum by the Noble family in 2006. Visitors are welcome to use the local history research materials in the Reference Room, including a complete set of Fortuna Union High School Megaphone yearbooks from 1906 to the present. Winter hours: Noon-4:30 pm, Thursday - Sunday. Summer hours: Noon-4:30 pm, 7 days a week. No fee. Prearranged tours are available by calling 725-7645.
